MOTORCYCLING ACROSS WISCONSIN

SUNDAY, APRIL 18, 1-2pm, Chentis-Krueger Community Center
(Fish Hatchery)

Bill Murphy, author of Motorcycling Across Wisconsin, will speak and show slides from his favorite Wisconsin rides—focusing on the unusual and lesser-known places and things, both natural and manmade. Followed by book sale/signing.

PLANTING A BUTTERFLY GARDEN!

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 7:00-8:00pm,
Hawks Inn Visitor Center
*REGISTRATION REQUIRED

There is nothing more fascinating, for both children and adults, than the flutter of butterfly wings in the garden. Butterflies are always a welcome sight. Want to learn more about them and how to attract them to your garden? Master Gardener and 4-H Flowers Leader, Bambi Butzlaff Voss, will explain how to do just that. Learn what to plant and do to make your yard a haven for butterflies. Start planning now so you can plant this spring!

HIDE AND PEEP—MARCH 29-APRIL 9!

Find a Peep in one of the Kids' sections, grab the Peep AND an item you wish to check out from that area, take the peep and the item to the desk, check out your item, and receive a treat!

Ages 4-10 only.

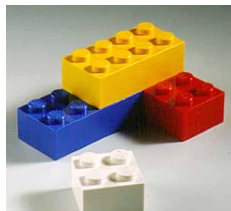

CULVER'S COLORING CONTEST, APRIL 5-16

Help us kick off National Library Week by celebrating your favorite book with a drawing. Children ages 11 and under are encouraged to participate. There will be a grand prize winner and a runner-up announced on Monday, April 19th. All participants will receive a coupon for a free custard cone from Culvers. Yum! In addition, there will be a table of art supplies in the library for young artists to design an ice cream sundae or banana split.

LEGO MY LIBRARY! THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 4-5pm, Program Room, Ages 8 and up

We will have Legos available and a teen mentor to help. The first project will be to design a bridge and vehicle to traverse your bridge. Projects will be put on display in the library. The second meeting is scheduled for Thursday, May 20th.

CALLING ALL WANNABE JUGGLERS!

SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1:30

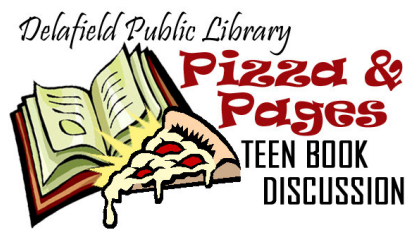

Our friend, Andy Schatschneider, will be here to celebrate National Juggler's Day by teaching us how to juggle. We'll start with scarves and progress onto tennis balls. No flaming torches, though!

POWER OF WORDS WRITING CHALLENGE!

Try your hand at the shortest, but perhaps one of the most powerful and challenging of writing exercises. Tell us about your life or an event in your life in 6 words. Based on the popular book series of 6 Word Memoirs, the Delafield Public Library invites all teens to participate. You may submit more than one entry.

We will create a collage of the memoirs at the library.

All names will be removed. Bring your memoir to the library or send it to deref@wcfls.lib.wi.us
